Service Definition:

A. Employment Services includes a variety of supports to help an individual identify career and employment interest, find and keep a job.

A-B. Employment Services are a flexible customized employment process designed to personalize the employment relationship between a job candidate and an employer in a way that meets the needs of both. It is based on an individualized match between the strengths, conditions, and interests of a job candidate and the identified business needs of an employer. Employment Services utilizes an individual approach to employment planning and job development.

B.A. Employment Services includes a variety of supports to help an individual identify career and employment interest, find and keep a job.

C. Employment Services include:

1. Discovery is a time limited comprehensive, person-centered and community-based employment planning support service to better inform an individual seeking competitive integrated employment to create a Discovery Profile;

2. Job Development is support for an individual to obtain an individual job in a competitive integrated employment setting in the general workforce, including customized employment or self-employment;

3. Intensive Initial Job Coaching is support in learning and completing job tasks for an individual either when beginning of a new job, after a promotion, or after a significant change in duties or circumstances in a competitive integrated employment setting in the general workforce, including customized employment and self-employment. Supports may include systematic instruction and other learning strategies based on the individual learning style and needs including learning to travel independently to the job;

4. Follow Along supports On-going Job Supports occur after the individual has transitioned into their job and Intensive Job Coaching supports have been faded. These supports ensure that individuals have the support assistance necessary to maintain their jobs; and
5. Self-Employment Development Supports are provided to assist an individual whose discovery activities and profile indicate a specific skill or interest that would benefit from resource ownership or small business operations.
6. Co-Worker Employment Supports are provided by fellow employees to assist the individual in the development of positive work-related relationships, habits, attitudes, skills, and work etiquette directly related to their specific employment, as well as assisting the individual to become a part of the informal culture of the workplace.

SERVICE REQUIREMENTS:

A. Employment Services is considered one of DDA’s employment services.
B. Discovery activities include a visit to an individual’s home, a review of community employers, job trials, interest inventory, a profile and picture resume.
C. On-going Job Supports includes job coaching, personal care assistance, behavioral supports, and delegated nursing tasks to support the employment activity.
D. Personal care assistance, behavioral supports, and delegated nursing tasks may not comprise the entirety of the service.
E. Discovery activities shall be reimbursed based on the following milestones:
